Narrative:
rp adv male has been sending letters to the children's school. children are part of a protection order.
Narrative:
rp's stalking order against the male has not been served - her daughter's order has been served and does cover the children and give her full custody of the children.

Narrative:

55 made contact with the rp, advised her that her protective order has not been served yet, thus is not in effect yet. Also advised her that the no contact order does not specify that he can not have any contact with the children. I advised her that if the female felt that there was a violation, that she could report one at any time. I advised the RP to call the court if she feels that an order should be amended. No violation.
